How to unlock Robinhood account? — Regain access

If your Robinhood account is locked, follow these steps to regain access quickly and securely. This usually happens due to identity verification issues, security flags, or compliance-related restrictions. Let's walk through the process step by step.

☒ Step 1: Open the App and Check for Alerts

Start by opening the Robinhood app and looking for any alerts or banners at the top of the screen. These messages often explain the reason for the account lock. In most cases, it relates to verification delays or suspicious login attempts.

☒ For help identifying the issue, call +1-844-483-2685

☒ Step 2: Access the Help Section

Tap your profile icon, then scroll down and select Help ☒ Contact Us. Choose "I have a different issue", and then pick Phone or Message for support options.

☒ Use the in-app support or call +1-844-483-2685 for faster response

☒ You can also directly request a callback at +1-844-483-2685

☒ Step 3: Verify Your Identity

A Robinhood support agent may require documents such as:

- A valid government-issued ID

- Proof of address (utility bill, bank statement)
- A verification selfie for added security

Upload the requested documents via the secure link in your message thread.

☒ If you face upload issues, dial +1-844-483-2685

☒ Step 4: Monitor Your Email and App

Once you've submitted verification documents, Robinhood will notify you via email or app. Make sure to check your spam/junk folder, as missing an email may delay account recovery.

☒ Have questions about your document review? Call +1-844-483-2685

☒ Step 5: Schedule a Callback (Optional)

If you prefer to speak with someone, go back to Help ☒ Contact Us ☒ Phone, and enter your number for a callback. A Robinhood representative will call you shortly.
